Remember I Love You (A Mother's Song)

Words and Music ©Copyright 2010 Anne Marie Hopkins

One thing I want you to know
Wherever in life you may go;
You never will be alone, because I love you.

And though the time now has come,
For you to leave me, dear one.
I hold you here in my heart, and always love you.

CHORUS
Oh how I wish you didn't have to go.
But since you have to go, remember I love you.
And if the road is hard, and you feel all alone.
Don't let this world get you down; remember I love you.

(Musical interlude)

In life, for sure there is pain.
And if I don't see you again,
I pray the Lord will sustain, you on your journey.
Our days on earth, they are few.
I wish I could spend mine with you,
But as you're travelling through,
Remember I love you.

CHORUS
Oh how I wish you didn't have to go.
But since you have to go, remember I love you.
And if the road is hard, and you feel all alone.
Don't let this world get you down; remember I love you.
Love you.
