Until You Come

This song speaks of the love of the Father and the love of the Lord Jesus Christ to all who are born into the family of God through faith in Christ. (John 14:23, John 15:9, John 17:3, 23, 26). The Lord Jesus Christ shall wipe away all tears from those saved from the nations; “And there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away” (Revelation 21:4). The New Jerusalem is described in Revelation 21&22 and “The street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass.”

Until You come my days and nights are lonely.
And though I try to find things to console me.
You know, it works, for a while.
To fill this longing deep inside.
But then I cry, for You to come.

You are the one: the only one who knows me.
For me You died: You shed Your blood on Calvary.
The Father’s only true Son.
Lord Jesus, I know You are the One.
Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done.
Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done.

(The Lord)
I want you to know, that I love you so.
You will never find love greater than Mine.
Love greater than Mine.

And when You come my sorrow shall be over.
And we shall walk together on the streets of gold.
You’ll wash all tears from my eyes.
There’s be no sorrow, sadness or pain.
True joy I’ll know. For evermore. True joy I’ll know. For evermore.

(The Lord)
I want you to know, that I love you so.
You will never find love greater than Mine.
Love greater than Mine.

Music and Lyrics ©Copyright Anne Marie Hopkins